

Program:

COASTAL PROJECT PERFORMANCE

IWR Contact: POC

Description: Coastal Project Performance (under the Section 227 Program) is an applied research effort monitored by the U.S. Army Engineer Research and Development Center. Its objectives are to provide state-of-the-art coastal shoreline protection, with emphasis on evaluation of innovative or nontraditional approaches to help prevent coastal erosion and to improve shoreline sediment retention.

Web Site: Coastal and Hydraulics Laboratory (project web site)

